Learning For All, Whatever It Takes!

MISSION & VISION

Berkley Charter School is committed to Learning For All, Whatever It Takes! We provide an optimal learning environment that emphasizes research-based effective practices, time on task, and an integrated relevant curriculum. Learning for all includes ensuring that all students have the resources necessary to achieve optimal learning, as well as, providing a well-trained, caring staff that utilizes data to drive instructional practices.

It is our goal for Berkley to stand out among the district. Below you will see a chart that depicts the percentage of Berkley students meeting high standards on the FCAT2.0.

Over the past five years Berkley has consistently performed better than the district average.

Of the parent surveys returned, 98% of parents indicated that they are pleased with the overall education that their child receives at Berkley.
